CONSEQUENCES OF THE OUTHAGE.

MEMPHIE, Aug. 26.—Dispatches from Humboldt and other points along the line of the Memphis and Louisville railroad, in Gibson county, near the scenes of the disturbances on Saturday, say a perfect reign of terror exists, in consequence of the excitement growing out of the mod taking sixteen negroes out of the Trenton jail last night and kill-ing them. The blacks and whites are symiog, and such is the dread of a conflict ensuing that the railroad officials find it difficult to prevent em ployees from leaving the road. Further news is anxiously looked for.

The answer filed with the clerk of the district men left.

On Monday the prisoners were arraigned before the justices on the charge of shooting with intent to kill and with inciting to riot.

The answer nied with index the charge of shooting with intent to kill and with inciting to riot.

The answer nied with index that the court by first any other time, himself and day of April, or at any other time, himself and any time she has been or now is his wife, alleging. that on April 10, 1838, App Eliza married Jam svidence, and related the story of the cause, origin, purpose and expectation of this extensive lawful wife of Dec, never, as he believes, having of April, 1868, he was informed and verily be lieved that prior to that time she had been legally divorced from said Dee. That on the 10th of Jap usry, 1894, he, being an unmarried man, was law fully married to Mary Ann Angell, at Kirtland Ohio, and that said Mary is still living, and is his lawful wife, all of which facts Ann Eliza knew on the 5th of April, 1868. He further says that on the 6th of April, 1865. himself and Ann Elias were members of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Spints, and that it was the doctrine and belief that the members thereof might enter into plural or color tial marriages, and admits that in accordang with such dostrine of the church the ceremon was performed at the time stated to unite them in what is known as such plural or celestial mar-riage. That she was then informed by him and well knew that by reason of said marriage in this manner she could not have, and need not expect, his society or personal attention as in ordinary relations between husband and wife. "After your resolve to hush the subject up, what persons, do you think, began to spread the story of your household skeleton?"

"There is some mystory there. I can scarcely credit the story that Elinabeth made a confession to Miss Authony, although they were intimates. I think my mother-in-law, Mirs. Morse, learning of the story from her daughter, apprehended that, in the long result, it would divide my family, and she began to prepare the way for the rupture and Elizabeth's rindication. I think she worked upon Mrs. Henry W. Beccher to help har. Of course Mrs. Beecher wanted me out of the way. But the idea that Elizabeth was not heart and soul in the woman's suffrage movement is absurd.

Her husband was my after see for years, and I would do an impetuous turn for another. My position has been put, by a part of the press, as that of a childish, erratic, position man. At the time of my connection with the Independent I was a more worldly personality than Mr. Beecher. The strongest men in the Government were my friends—Staton, Colfax, Litcoln, Chase. On one occasion Mr. Beecher's son—a volunteer officer in a New York regiment—fell into some misusp."
